Prayer for the Jubilee Year of St. Francis of Assisi

Saint Francis, our brother,
you who eight hundred years ago
went to meet Sister Death
as a man at peace,
intercede for us before the Lord.

You recognized true peace
in the Crucifix of San Damiano, teach us to seek in Him
the source of all reconciliation
that breaks down every wall.

You who, unarmed,
crossed the lines of war
and misunderstanding,
give us the courage to build bridges
where the world raises up boundaries.

In this time afflicted by conflict
and division,
intercede for us so that we may become peacemakers:
unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ.
Amen.

"My life is like shattered glass," said the visitor. "My soul is tainted with evil. Is there any hope for me?"

"Yes," said the Master. "There is something whereby each broken thing is bound again and every stain made clean."

"What?"

"Forgiveness."

"Whom do I forgive?"

"Everyone. Life, God, your neighbor. And especially yourself."

"How is that done?"

"By understanding that no one is to blame," said the Master. "No one."

When one of his disciples was guilty of a serious lapse, everyone expected the Master to give him some exemplary punishment.

When nothing was done for the whole month, someone pleaded with the Master, "We cannot ignore what has happened. After all, God has given us eyes."

"Yes," replied the Master, "and eyelids!"

(Awakening, Anthony De Mello)

To bring about the justice of the Kingdom of God, God forgives. Without the heart and the mind of God within you, you cannot understand Christian forgiveness. Only God can forgive, and only because of Him do you become forgiving. Then you don't have to ask Him or ask yourself how many times is fair enough.

This divine forgiveness is beyond our social justice system and human comprehension. It is the way God save you; it is also the way you save yourself and save others.
