Prayer for the Jubilee Year of St. Francis of Assisi

Saint Francis, our brother,
you who eight hundred years ago
went to meet Sister Death
as a man at peace,
intercede for us before the Lord.

You recognized true peace
in the Crucifix of San Damiano, teach us to seek in Him
the source of all reconciliation
that breaks down every wall.

You who, unarmed,
crossed the lines of war
and misunderstanding,
give us the courage to build bridges
where the world raises up boundaries.

In this time afflicted by conflict
and division,
intercede for us so that we may become peacemakers:
unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ.
Amen.

OUR DISCRIMINATING GOD

One day, I asked the Lord God, "Dear God, you discriminate, don't you?"
"Yes, I do," God said, "because every human life is equally valuable to me."
Another day, I asked God, "Do you mean the poor and the rich are of the same value?"
"No, they are different," God replied.
"What is the difference?" I asked.
"The size of their graves," God answered with a twinkle in His eye.
 The Lord says, "As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts." (Is 55: 9) That's why you and I may find that the God of Jesus Christ is challenging, and His teachings a stumbling block to our personal expectations of what God should be.
 And that's why many religions have tried to frame God within the boundaries of their own belief systems; and the people of this world want to worship the God of their expectations.
 The God of Jesus Christ and our God is not bound by religious ideologies. No one can own Him, and no one can audit Him. All we can do is to surrender ourselves to His kind judgment.
 True and good Catholics do not worship God for a reward or a fair payment. The pagans can do as much. True Catholics worship God out of love. Those who worship God out of need will find that God is discriminating.
 I think when Jesus told the parable of the landowner who hired workers who worked different hours yet received the same payment, many people who heard Him were upset. If you were one of the people who came at an early hour and worked through the heat until the end of the day, would you feel comfortable with the God of our Lord Jesus?
